

Prayer Focus

August 2018

August 6th to August 12th

'Summer suns are glowing over land and sea

As we pack our cases for summer holidays both home and abroad, let us remember people in other lands who struggle to feed themselves and their families during crop failure and periods of famine. Pray for these people.

August 13th to August 19th

'New every morning is the love our wakening and uprising prove; through sleep and darkness safely brought, restored to life and power and thought'

On bright summer days we awaken with anticipation of a day full of good things but there are people for whom the day does not hold good things - those living on the streets, people with mental health issues, those bereaved and those who are lonely - they wake to a day filled with worry, despair, fear and loneliness. In your prayers remember such people.

August 20th to August 26th

'All the beauty, music, joy, all true, kindly love, Are pure gifts without alloy sent from heaven above'

Give thanks for all the good things in your life.

August 27th to September 1st

'Just as I am thine own to be, friend of the young who lovest me, to consecrate myself to thee, O Jesus Christ, I come'

For children and young people preparing for the next academic year we pray that they will achieve their potential, be kind and considerate towards others and bring joy to themselves and those around them.

Altrincham United Reformed Church

www.altrinchamurc.org.uk

Prayer Focus

August 2018

August 6th to August 12th

'Summer suns are glowing over land and sea

As we pack our cases for summer holidays both home and abroad, let us remember people in other lands who struggle to feed themselves and their families during crop failure and periods of famine. Pray for these people.

August 13th to August 19th

'New every morning is the love our wakening and uprising prove; through sleep and darkness safely brought, restored to life and power and thought'

On bright summer days we awaken with anticipation of a day full of good things but there are people for whom the day does not hold good things - those living on the streets, people with mental health issues, those bereaved and those who are lonely - they wake to a day filled with worry, despair, fear and loneliness. In your prayers remember such people.

August 20th to August 26th

'All the beauty, music, joy, all true, kindly love, Are pure gifts without alloy sent from heaven above'

Give thanks for all the good things in your life.

August 27th to September 1st

'Just as I am thine own to be, friend of the young who lovest me, to consecrate myself to thee, O Jesus Christ, I come'

For children and young people preparing for the next academic year we pray that they will achieve their potential, be kind and considerate towards others and bring joy to themselves and those around them.

Altrincham United Reformed Church

www.altrinchamurc.org.uk