

Prayer Focus

August 2019

Sunday 4th

Lord, may nothing separate me from you. Teach me how to choose only your way today so each step will lead me closer to you.

Monday 5th

Lord, thank you for your unfailing love for us, your blessings and goodness.

Tuesday 6th

Remember and pray for those who are being persecuted for their beliefs.

Wednesday 7th

Thank you Lord for all the things I have and let me not worry about the things I do not have, because I know that in due time you will provide for me

Thursday 8th

Pray that we may be led by compassion in our interactions with others.

Friday 9th

Pray for those amongst our fellowship and beyond who are cared for and also for their carers.

Saturday 10th

Lord, bless those who give freely of their time, talents and energies to support those in need.

Sunday 11th

Give thanks for those who carry out the important work of providing food supplies to communities in need. May we continue to appreciate and support the work they do.

Monday 12th

May we as a Church continue to explore opportunities to help children and young people to feel part of our Church family.

Tuesday 13th

May we make all around us feel valued and appreciated for who they are in all their diversity.

Wednesday 14th

Lord, I ask for guidance and protection for my family and all those around me.

Thursday 15th

Pray that we may act as an instrument of the Lord's peace in a world often troubled by conflict.

Friday 16th

May we concentrate on what brings us together rather than the differences between us.

Saturday 17th

Lord, I thank you for another day. I do not know what this day might bring. Therefore, I put my trust in you.

Sunday 18th

May our work with other churches and faiths be blessed; may we be stronger by working together to share God's love and care.

Monday 19th

Lord, give us strength and the knowledge that you are always with us when we feel overwhelmed.

Tuesday 20th

Thank you Lord for the endless variety and beauty of the natural world around us, and for the gifts it gives us.

Wednesday 21st

Pray that we may always be tolerant and understanding of others, learning to see matters from their point of view.

Thursday 22nd

Pray that there may be increased equality in our world of division and injustice.

Friday 23rd

Pray for politicians and leaders of the nations, that their actions may be guided by a concern for those they serve.

Saturday 24th

May all those whose lives are affected by violence in all its forms know that God's love and support is always with them.

Sunday 25th

Lord, Guide me along the right direction and comfort me in the darkest moments of my life.

Monday 26th

Be thankful for all those in our lives who have given us love, friendship and support.

Tuesday 27th

Pray for those who have lost loved ones, that they may know God's love and comfort in their grief.

Wednesday 28th

May God provide his blessings and guidance for the work of our Church.

Thursday 29th

Pray that our deeds and words may always be guided by compassion and respect for others.

Friday 30th

Give thanks for the varied skills and strengths that God has given us and pray that we may use them for the benefit of others.

Saturday 31st

Lord, help children and young people to make the decisions that are right for them and know they are always supported by the Church family and by your love.
